

SYNOPSIS OF NEW LAW

Latest Decisions of the Courts of Last Resort
Compiled by William McMahon.

Published in The Evening World on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The six-year statute of limitations as to actions at law to recover damages for deceit, begins to run from the consummation of the fraud, and not from the discovery thereof.—East River Nat. Bank v. Columbia Trust Co., 171 N. Y. S. 284.

When a tenant was obliged to buy gas and oil stoves to heat the premises, on the landlord's failure to do so, the tenant may recover the cost.

An Unfailing Way To Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes)
Ugly hairy growths can be removed to the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about two minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real delatone.—Advt.

When in need of a purgative, do not resort to violent cathartics, but take the gentle, natural laxative—

"Don't tell me your cigar smoking is costing you more every day! Of course it does—everything does."

"You're like the fellow who said he couldn't pass through the doorway because his hat would strike the top of the framework."

"Well, take off your hat to the Piccadilly Little Cigar, and be thankful I told you about it."

"If you want to economize in your smoking; if you like and feel you must have the fragrant Havana flavor, buy a box of Piccadilly Little Cigars."

"These are the days to save; but how rarely can one save without sacrifice! Smoking the Piccadilly in lieu of big, costly cigars is one of the rare cases."

"Buy a box today; why defer the pleasure and profit?"
